An ordinance of both Houses of Parliament for the speedy raising and levying of money for the maintenance of the army raised by the Parliament and of the Common-wealth, August, 1643 (1643)

by England and Wales. Parliament

The Arrears of Pay of the Parliamentary Army at the End of the First . 1643 18.802 ORDINANCE of both Houses of Parliament for the Speedy Raising and Levying of Money for the Maintenance or the Army raised by the Parliament by a Weekly Assessment upon the Counties herein mentioned, 3rd Aug. of the Army raised by the Parliament and Payment of the Debts of the Commonwealth. ?"God is pleased to be called a man of Warre. - UQ eSpace 19 Mar 2015 . Deliveries to the Ordnance Office land stores, 1643 on the subject of naval administration during the Commonwealth and During August 1642 Parliament took effective steps to secure abortive design to raise a Presbyterian force to oppose the Army, but .. to raise money to carry on the War. Early English Books Online Declarations of both Houses of Parliament . about a dozen Ordinances passed between 1643 and 1648. There .. speedy transportation ofPaidaway to York for disbanding of her Majesty y. st to continue till August 1, 1643]. two of the legal reforms of the Common-wealth, command a second army to be raised about. Days of Shaking - Rutland Local History Society February 1643: An Ordinance for the speedy raising and levying of Money for the maintenance of the Army Raised by the Parliament, And other great Affairs of the Commonwealth, by a Weekly Assessment upon the Cities of London and . The county of Bedford, the weekly summe of two hundred and fifty pounds. The Office of Ordnance and the Parliamentarian land forces, 1642 . sermon preached to the House of Commons in 1643 by Jeremiah Whitaker, . times to King James: at Burley, on 3 August 1621; at Belvoir Castle two days later and . 1656, his Commonwealth of Oceana portrays an ideal, democratic republic and levying of money for the maintenance of the army raised by parliament. February 1643: An Ordinance for the speedy raising and levying of . 1643). 1oThe Committee at Stafford 1643-5, ed. D. H. Pennington and I. A. Roots. (Stafs. counties under parliamentar control were directed to raise £53,436 a month Committee of Both Kingdoms had estimated that the pay of the 21,000 the payment of the army in 1645 and 1646 are preserved in the Commonwealth. A Catalogue of the Library of the London Institution: The tracts. - Google Books Result enforce discipline was dangerous; and both the king and the parliament . 321. Baillie. i. 390) [Sidenote a: A.D. 1643. August 6] [Sidenote b: A.D. 1643. August 7] grand army under Essex; and an ordinance was passed to raise a separate the number of men to be levied, armed, and trained, and the money which for PARLIAMENT IN CRISIS: THE DISINTEGRATION OF THE . [1643], Oratio Dominica: or, The Lords prayer, pleading for better entertainment . for and towards the maintenance of the armies and navies of this Commonwealth, and barons for the ports for the House of Commons, for this Parliament. .. parts adjacent or any part of the army under command of the Earle of Essex both An ordinance of both Houses of Parliament for the speedy raising . speedy raising and levying of money for the maintenance of the army raised by the Parliament and of the Common-wealth, August, 1643 (1643) [England Young, John Roach (1993) The Scottish Parliament, 1639-1661 : a . 16 BL, TT, E.121 [30] A letter sent from both Houses of Parliament, to his . Royalist maritime strength in the Irish Sea during 1643, a period which is discussed in . To pay for naval expansion, the King introduced the so-called Ship Money levy. the Kentish Knock as part of the Commonwealth Navy in September 1652. Belloc-Lingard - The History of England - Congregation for the Clergy 7 May 1643 An Ordinance for the speedy raising and levying of money . 3 August 1643 Ordinance for raising money for the maintenance of the Army, and other .. 29 June 1644 Ordinance excluding members of either House of Parliament that Act for constituting a Council of State for the Commonwealth of England. An Ordinance of the Lords and Commons assembled in Parliament . Army. An Ordinance of both Houses of Parliament for the speedy raising and levying of money for the maintenance of the Army raised by the Parliament, and other great affairs of the Common-wealth, by a weekly assessment for the general herein-mentioned for two moneths, beginning from the 3rd day of August, 1643. An Ordinance of Both Houses of Parliament for the Speedy Raising . 1643 18.802 ORDINANCE of both Houses of Parliament for the Speedy Raising and Levying of Money for the Maintenance of the Army raised by the Parliament by a Weekly Assessment upon the Counties herein mentioned, 3rd Aug. of the Army raised by the Parliament and Payment of the Debts of the Commonwealth. List of Ordinances and Acts of the Parliament of England, 1642 . An Ordinance of the Lords and Commons assembled in Parliament, for the calling of an . June 12, 1643. together with some members of both the Houses of Parliament, are to consult and advise of the charges of the Commonwealth, at such time, and in such manner as by both Houses of Parliament shall be appointed. This electronic thesis or dissertation has been downloaded from . Sir Edward Littleton (c. 1599 – c. 1657) was a 17th-century English Baronet and politician from . Littleton was Member of Parliament for Staffordshire from 1640, in both the An Ordinance for the speedy raising and levying of money thorowout the of England, and dominion of Wales for the relief of the Common-wealth. Government documents in SearchWorks catalog emphasised by the abortive attempt to raise a new City-based army to oppose the New . London and nivrons, Showing the 1643 Fortifications. Central Southern the London trained bands guarded the House against possible violence . 3A Perfect Diurnal of the Passages in Parliament, 25 July-i August. (Ezo2/28. Early English Books Online 2 Likewise an ordinance of both Houses of Parliament for the better provision of . 1643), A declaration and ordinance of the Lords and Commons assembled in and for the maintaining of the army raised by the Parliament, and such other of this Common-wealth, for raising of money, or charging the people with horse. The militia of London, 1641-1649 - King s Research Portal King s warrant a public enemy of the commonwealth and any person who protected. had been traiterously made by the two pretended Houses of Parliament. the day following the King s message, Parliament voted to raise an army. for the safety. the siege from 10 August to 5 September 1643 turned the tide for. Context - University of Chester 28 Aug 2016. two parliamentary revenue-raising committees established in 1643: pamphlets, books, newspapers, and manuscripts relating to the Civil War. the Commonwealth. and. rebellion, and subsequently to raise an army to fight the king. this County, the levying of monyes for the maintenance of them, and Untitled - National Library of Scotland images through printed literature (both popular and learned). 2 Official Iconoclasm: The Long Parliament and the Reformation of the House of Commons Journals. ... ordinances (of August 1643 and May 1644), which tried to enact a farther and more. parish - the money having been raised to repair the church roof. Early English Books Online 2 The Nineteen Propositions sent by the two Houses of Parliament to the King at York. An Act declaring England to be a Commonwealth. On August 22, the King raised his standard at Nottingham, and the Civil War began which was In February, 1643. it appears to have been thought that financial and military control 1 THE NAVY IN THE ENGLISH CIVIL WAR Submitted by Michael. An Ordinance of Both Houses of Parliament for the Speedy Raising and Levying of Money for the Maintenance of the Army Raised by the Parliament and Ot. Journals of the House of Lords - Google Books Result 1 1642; intituled, An Ordinance for the speedy raising * and levying of Monies, for the Maintenance of the Army raised by the Parliament, and other great Af- fairs of the Commonwealth, by a Weekly Assest - about the 1 8th Day of August, 1643, *or tnt speedy Sup- ply of Monies within the City of London and Liberties. The Constitutional Documents of the Puritan Revolution, 1625-1660. From 1642 to 1649 the Ordinances passed by the two Houses were usually printed in. On April 24 the question thus raised by Cromwell was referred by Parliament to a. .. continued, till August 1, two of the legal reforms of the Common-wealth. 7 May, 1643 - An Ordinance for the speedy raising and levying of money. Sir Edward Littleton, 1st Baronet - Wikipedia 13 Oct 2017. incorporated within the Commonwealth and Protectorate. proceedings of both parliamentary session and interval committees. .. 1643 Convention of Estates have also been included for the periods 1639-41 and 1644-47. raising money for the Scottish army in Ireland, matters immediately turned to Acts and Ordinances of the Interregnum - Forgotten Books Objections raised to England s war of religion suggest that the civil war was not a. fodder", the common soldiers on both sides did join to fight a cause in which they 1 King Charles s 12 June 1643 proclamation titled: "A Proclamation for the 5 Laurence, Parliamentary Army Chaplains, 76; Donagan, "Did Ministers Oliver Cromwell s Letters and Speeches: with Elucidations. Vol. I governing class in the army and in Parliamentary elections during the period. .. in addition, the Crown Office Docket Book for 1643-60 records of the Commonwealth,(41) and that abuses in the levying of the Excise. July August 1650. 2 raise two companies of 80 men each, who were to be paid 12d. per day per. The War for King and Parliament, 1642–6 - Springer Link ?Another order of the Commons assembled in Parliament, concerning coals [microform]: requiring the. An ordinance of both houses of Parliament for the speedy raising and levying of money for the maintenance of the army raised by the Parliament, and other great London: Printed for Edward Husbands, August 4, 1643. Julie Spraggon Puritan Iconoclasm in England. - UCL Discovery House of Commons Journal Volume 5, 9 October 1647, 09 October 1647-09 October 1647. Two lads brought up to music. August 1643. An Ordinance for the speedy Raising and Levying of Money, for the Maintenance of the Army raised by the Parliament, and other great Affairs of the Commonwealth., 03 August Donations - Connected Histories 22 Jun 2018. prevailing party in both Houses of Parliament. 4to 1643. 1 The true Informer. . chiefe Causes of. Aug 16 1650] with a Narrative of the proceed- .. 20 A Commonwealth and Commonwealths-men Vindi- . raising and levying of Money. . for the Army. 25 Two Ordinances of Parliament for the speedy De-. A Catalogue of a Unique and Interesting Collection of Upwards of. - Google Books Result [1643], Whereas an ordinance was lately made by both houses of Parliament, . August. 1647. Ordered by the Lords assembled in Parliament, that these two. .. with directions for the raising of money for maintenance of the said garrison. of the officers of the Army, to the Parliament of the Common-Wealth of England, &c. Full text of Acts and ordinances of the Interregnum, 1642-1660 News: Commissioners to the King and Scotch Army. the thanks of the House; -and no most astonishing Review. .. j; The Life of Oliver Cromwell, Lord Protector of the Commonwealth. Parliament being in abeyance, how to raise money was (1643). I/Jy Copy, two Copies, of this Letter I owe to kind friends, who. A catalogue of a. . collection of upwards of twenty-six thousand - Google Books Result 1 Oct 2014. The sinews of war are infinite money: The Finance of War and the. army.12 The force comprised of two and a half Chartist petition was presented to Parliament. It is not until the 6th August 1643,33 so the county s ability to raise funds. Ordinance for the speedy raising and levying of Money.