He will abundantly pardon,: Radio messages of the second part of the thirteenth Lutheran hour

by Walter Arthur Maier
For judgment will be without mercy to anyone who has shown no mercy; 6 after this Jesus went to the other side of the Sea of Galilee, also called the Sea of Tiberias. 7 And a great crowd came to him to listen to him and to be healed of their sick. 8 But Jesus went away to the other side of the Sea of Galilee, to the region near the shore of the Sea of Tyre. 9 There the people gathered to him, and he went out and sat by the lake. 10 And so many were coming to him that he got into a boat and sat, and at evening he was still there. 11 Many, however, from Galilee and the region around Jerusalem came and were sitting around him. 12 And all spoke as they pleased with him. 13 Then he said to his disciples, 14 ‘The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few; 15 therefore beseech the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest. 16 Go therefore into the lost tribe of Israel and proclaim the good news. 17 And it is to them that the word of the kingdom of God will be preached. 18 But I tell you, many who are first will be last, and many last will be first.